Green Practice

9to5 Seating is committed to sustainable and environmentally responsible business practices. Responsible sourcing is a process we take very seriously. We work hard to ensure that the chairs we manufacture are safe for our customers and are produced in an environmentally and socially responsible manner. This global perspective is endorsed and executed throughout every aspect within our corporate culture, warehousing, manufacturing, and office facilities.

We are proud to demonstrate our commitment by offering GREENGUARD Certified products. Our entire product line earned GREENGUARD Gold Indoor Air Quality Certification issued by the GREENGUARD Environmental Institute. Additionally, 9to5 Seating participates in the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Waste Wise Program and has been awarded the prestigious LEED® NC Gold Certification for our flagship factory and corporate headquarters in Hawthorne, California. Our Hawthorne headquarters uses a solar powered rooftop photovoltaic panel system to generate electricity for the facility. This solar panel system has generated over 4,750 kWh since 2011; as a result, we have saved over 600 tons of CO₂, 15,000 trees, and 67,500 gallons of gas. To view how much power we are generating in real-time visit our solar portal at: www.9to5seating.com/solar

At 9to5 Seating, we are aware of the potential impacts that today's environmental challenges will have if they are left unaddressed. That is why we will continue to reduce our carbon footprint and strengthen our commitment to thinking and acting green. To learn more about our green practices, please visit:

Vertically Integrated

We differentiate ourselves through vertical integration. Chairs are manufactured and shipped from our flagship factory in Hawthorne, California and many of our component parts are made in our factory located in Union City, Tennessee. Unlike our competitors who buy most of their parts from outside suppliers, we can control the consistency of raw materials used to build our products. We save time, money, and resources by doing this in house. These savings are then passed on to you.

The ingenuity in our ergonomic designs and vertical manufacturing process reflect a high level of quality and craftsmanship you can expect every time you sit in a 9to5 Seating chair. We offer quality seating built to last, which is why we stand behind our Lifetime Warranty.

ABOUT

Founded in 1982, 9to5 Seating is a vertically integrated manufacturer, specializing in the design and production of ergonomic office seating to accommodate the rigorous demands of today’s office environments. While 9to5 Seating has many years of experience in the manufacturing of office seating, it truly differentiates itself from its competitors by its vertical integration with manufacturing facilities globally. It is through this combination of domestic and global manufacturing that we are able to offer the customer the options and the wide selection of upholstery material only available when the product is manufactured in the United States, but at prices that rival products that are totally of foreign manufacture.
